Mad House Horror.
At the meeting of the Comm. ttee of Expenditures in the Interior Department, the counsel of an old lady by the name of Mrs. Bontz, who was too ill to appear before the committee, presented the following affidavit in regard to her son, who was formerly an inmate of the asylum:

On the 22d of May, 1876, appeared before me, T. J. Gardner, a Justice of the Peace, in and for the city and District aforesaid, Mrs. Sarah Bontz, who being duly sworn and qualified, deposes and says that she placed her son, George W. Bontz, aged thirty years, in the Government Insane Asylum under the charge of Dr. C. H. Nichols in the spring of 1858.

About three or four weeks after she had placed him in the asylum, she called to see her son and was kept waiting two hours or more before she saw him. She was in the habit of visiting him every two or three weeks; on every visit had to wait the same length of time. He remained at the institution about two years; he had become so reduced that he was unable to walk; she became satisfied that he was starving and would die if he remained any longer; she, therefore, obtained an order from the Secretary of the Interior and took him home. He was then covered with vermin and carried the marks of having been terribly beaten; she kept him at home about sixteen months or more, by which time he had become very filthy and dangerous, so much so that she could not take care of him any longer and was compelled to return him to the asylum, because she had no other place. Her son was violently insane; sometimes rational enough to inquire about different members of the family. While in this condition (rational) he asked her not to give any clothing or anything else that was intended for him to his attendant, Price, because he would not get them if she did. Price would put on her son's clothing and wear them as if they were his own. Dependent saw some articles of her son's clothing on Price; all the clothing and bedding needed were furnished by her and his name marked thereon. One day dependent went to the Asylum and obtained admission to the ward, by stealth, in which her son was placed and asked the attendant, who seemed to be new, for (Geo. W. Bontz); her son was lying upon the floor, with two old blankets under him which were wet, directly under an open window. He was shivering with cold; as soon as he saw her, he cried: "Oh, mother!" The attendant, on learning that he was her son, became alarmed, fearing, she presumed, that he would lose his place for allowing her to come into the ward. A rough looking character occupied her son's bed and was covered up with his bed clothing which she had given her son. Her son pleaded to be taken away from this horrible place, "this iron coffin." Alfred D. Nichols became cognizant of the facts and that she had found her son in such condition; and her son family were never permitted to visit the room where he was, except at the last when Dr. Earle, who was in an upper room, died. Dr. Earle, who was in the asylum at that time, saw the condition her son was in and sent for her to come to the hospital as soon as possible, as he was dying. She went over and found him nearly gone, and asked permission of Dr. Nichols for herself and daughters to remain with her dying son all night. He refused. Dr. Earle interceded, and after spending some hours in the effort, succeeded in obtaining permission for her to remain, but refused the sisters, who were with her at the time. One died remain in the room, but Dr. Nichols ordered her out, and she was compelled to go. Before her son died, she said: "George, did you wish to see me?" He answered: "Yes; I am about to die when I leave this body, what do you intend to do with it?" He asked what he was to do with it? He said: "He died the next morning, April 3, 1863, and she asked for a loan of the old mattress upon which he was lying to carry his body home, promising to return it promptly, but was refused. Dr. Nichols claimed that the feather bed and mattress she had given her son could not be found, for a long time, finally it was found and used. Her son's hair was out short; his head and body were covered with vermin; scraped at least as many as would fill a large spoon from his head and ears. The skin of the ears behind them was eaten off by vermin; his shoulders, under the arms, and around his neck, were completely honeycombed by vermin. The body was bruised and discolored by the lashes which had been given, and marks of former lacerations and bruises, which had been healed, were visible. His entire body had been covered with vermin. She regrets that Dr. Magruder is not living to corroborate her. She made a complaint to the Secretary of the Interior in person. He requested her to present it in writing and he would investigate it. She was told Dr. Nichols had so much influence in the Department that no attention would be paid to any complaint and she abandoned it. Has been a resident of the city thirty years with a short absence. Her residence is No. 1530 Fifteenth street northwest. Her age is eighty years; she is now sick in bed, entirely unable to walk or move, and she desires to place her statement on record before she dies.

Hon. Robert Toombs.
Dr. J. S. Pemberton—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in giving my testimony to the virtues of your excellent Globe Flower Syrup, having used several bottles myself for an obstinate affection of the throat and voice, with most happy results. It is certainly the most remedial I have ever used, and quite pleasant to the taste.

Yours truly,
ROBERT TOOMBS.

Medicinal.
TAKE
SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
For all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.

After Forty Years' trial it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility. It is eminently a Family Medicine, and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and money.

DOCTORS' BILLS.
Your Regulator is one of the best family medicines I ever used. I have not spent one dollar for my family for medicine in five years, only for your Regulator, and must say it does all it says it will. You can also recommend it in Colic for Stock, it having cured a fine milk of mine worth five hundred dollars. (J. A. Nelson, Macon, Ga.)

The Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

If you feel DULL, Drowsy, DEBILITATED, have frequent Headache, Mucous Passes badly, poor Appetite and Tongue Coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.
"I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect."—(Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, Governor of Alabama.)

"Your Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am persuaded it is a valuable addition to the medical science."—(Gov. J. Gill Shorter, Ala.)

"I have used the Regulator in my family for the past seventeen years. I can safely recommend it to the world as the best medicine I have ever used for that class of diseases it purports to cure."—H. F. Thigpen.

Baltimore Episcopal Methodist.
This medicine is acknowledged to have been a Liver Medicine, containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail.

Lady's Endorsement.
"I have given your medicine a thorough trial, and in so doing it failed to give full satisfaction."—(Ellen Mescham, Chatahoochee, Fla.)

Professional.
"From actual experience in the use of this medicine in my practice I have been, and am, satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine."—(Dr. J. W. Mason.)

Florida M. E. Conference.
"I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator in my family for Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, and regard it as an invaluable remedy. It has not failed to give relief in any instance."—(Rev. W. F. Easterling.)

President Oglethorpe College.
"Simmons' Liver Regulator is certainly a specific for that class of complaints which it claims to cure."—(Rev. David Mills, my 11)

ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE.
I am now manufacturing a good and cheap PAINT of several colors, the body of which is equal to Lead and Oil, which for tin roofs, barns, stables, fences, &c., will be found very suitable as well as economical, and an improvement over other cheap mixed Paints now in the market. For brick walls with a northern exposure it will act as a preservative to dampness. For iron it makes a solid and lasting coating, impervious to moisture and a preventive of rust. Being of various shades of color, the cornice and trimmings can be painted to suit. This paint has been used by one railroad company and by many of the farmers in this vicinity, and is highly recommended by all who have tried it. Price, single gallon, 75c. 10 gallons 50c per gal. 1 bbl, or 40 gallons, 60c per gal. Call and examine samples at 85 King st, under Saxe's Hall.
